

i do not wish for indiana's telephone privacy act to be weakened at all if we the people of indiana wanted to be called at all times we would not have passed this law and enjoyed how successfull it has been

thank you
sincereley
Dan Pederson